TO: Registered NCAA Wrestling Referees.

FROM: Derek van der Merwe, chair
NCAA Wrestling Committee

Pat McCormick
NCAA National Coordinator of Officials.

SUBJECT: In-Person Wrestling Referee Clinics.

The NCAA Wrestling Committee is happy to announce future sites for in-person clinics for the NCAA Wrestling Referee Enhancement Program. In addition to passing the online exam every fall, each referee assigned to NCAA wrestling competition is required to attend an in-person clinic before the 2011-12 season.

Clinics for fall 2010 will be held from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. local time at two sites:

Saturday, September 11, 2010
Kissick Auditorium inside the Arrillaga Family Sports Center
(Parking available in the Maples Pavilion parking lot)
Stanford University
641 East Campus Drive
Stanford, California 94305
Driving directions to campus by car

Sunday, September 12, 2010
The Viking Theatre is located inside of the Student Center – #22 (Parking is between #22 and #11 on the map)
Grand View University
Des Moines, Iowa
Driving directions to Des Moines

Clinician Dr. Pat McCormick will cover mechanics, positioning, tough calls and a host of informative topics designed to benefit wrestling referees at the college level. Registration will be completed at the conclusion of the clinic to fulfill the attendance requirement.

Clinics for fall 2011 will be held at Lehigh University, hosted by the EIWOA, and in the Richmond, Virginia, area. Dates are to be determined.
